What does it mean to trust God? It means I ask Him for what I need, believe He has heard me, thank Him when He confirms He will fulfill His promise to me, and then I walk with the assurance in my heart that He will meet my need.

Music Department Notice:

Any students in grades 6 to 12 who have music folders at home need to return them immediately or you will be charged for possession of that folder. You can return it to the school office up to Wednesday of next week before you will be charged.

This week the third-grade class has analyzed Matthew 4:4 and discussed why “eating” the scriptures is better than eating “physical” food.

Here are some to quote:

1. Stephen, “Scriptures will make you ready for your future.”
2. Kaleanys, “Scriptures will help you thank the Lord for the things He made and does.”
3. Julianys, “The scriptures will help you be more like Jesus.”
4. Penny, “When you know the scriptures you can bring each other together when fights happen.”
5. Jasmine, “You should know the scriptures because it will help you keep away from Satan and help you be closer to God.”
6. Madison, “Scriptures will help you be better friends with God.”
7. Channel, “Scriptures will help you be smarter and have a better life.”
8. Sharlize, “The scriptures help you have the gospel in your life, and you can share Jesus with other people.”
9. Justin, “The scriptures help you worship the only true God.”
10. Angela, “The scriptures help you live for eternity.”
